DOC Population Statistics

Average Daily Population for January 2021 through December 2022

Average Daily Inmate Population is presented by DC Department of Corrections by facility type from January 2021 through December 2022. The inmate population shows a slight decline in the jail population from over 1400 inmates in January 2021 to 1326 inmates in March 2022, nearly a 11% decrease; but subsequently the population decreased to 1262 by the end of December 2022. After reopening post-COVID in December 2021, the population gradually decreased and then increased in the second and third quarters of FY 2022. Those held for the USMS/USDC; homicide, conspiracy or kidnapping, aggravated assault; robbery, carjacking or burglary; weapons; and assault or domestic violence accounted for approximately 80% of the incarcerated population as of December 31, 2022.
