Program Statement

OPI: OGC
Number: 4356.1C
Date: January 26, 2001
Subject: Interstate Agreements on Detainers (IAD)

- 1. PURPOSE AND SCOPE. To promulgate the policy and procedures for handling and processing detainees in compliance with the Interstate Agreement on Detainers (IAD) for inmates remanded to the D.C. Department of Corrections (DCDC) with detainees for untried indictments, information, or complaints filed by party states.

On March 9, 1971, the District of Columbia became a party to the IAD on behalf of the United States and the District of Columbia. Therefore, it is the policy of the DCDC to comply with this Agreement and provide an effective means of disposing of detainees which are based on pending charges.

- 2. PROGRAM OBJECTIVES. The expected results of this program are:
- a. Inmates in the custody of the DCDC will be able to dispose of “untried” charges through the IAD process.
  - b. State jurisdictions will be able to acquire temporary custody of inmates housed in DCDC facilities through the IAD process.

3. DIRECTIVE AFFECTED.

- a. Directives Rescinded. D.O. 4356.1B, “Interstate Agreement of Detainers (IAD),” (7/23/79)

- b. Directives Referenced

D.O. 4353.1 “Inmate Transfer and Release Orders,” (8/12/91)

D.O. 4810.1B “Federal Designation and Transfer of Sentenced Offenders,” (1/25/84)

D.O. 4620.1 “Monitoring of Sentenced U.S. Code Offenders and Tracking of Sentenced Felons Transferred to the Federal Bureau of Prisons.” (9/30/99)

4. STANDARDS REFERENCED. None
5. AUTHORITY. D.C. Code § 24-442 and 24-701, "Interstate Agreement on Detainers"
6. DELEGATION OF AUTHORITY. The General Counsel, DCDC, is delegated authority to act as the District of Columbia's Agreement Administrator in all matters concerning the IAD. Questions concerning IAD procedures may be referred to the IAD Coordinator, General Counsel's Office.
7. DEFINITIONS. For the purpose of this Program Statement, the following definitions apply:
  - a. Charge - Any untried indictments, informations or complaints.
  - b. Detainer - A formal request from a federal, state, or local jurisdiction for custody of an inmate upon completion of a term of imprisonment.
  - c. Interstate Agreement on Detainers (IAD) Act - An agreement entered into by "party states" for the disposition of untried charges, indictments, information, complaints which form basis for the detainer. The agreement applies to all detainers based on pending charges which have been lodged against an inmate by a "party state," regardless of when the detainer was lodged. IAD Act applies only to "untried" indictments, information or complaints. The IAD Act does not apply to probation or parole violators.
  - d. Party State - The United States of America, the District of Columbia, and any state or territory of the United States that has codified IAD into its statutes.
8. PROCEDURES. D. C. Department of Corrections personnel shall adhere to the following guidelines when processing Interstate Agreement on Detainers for sentenced offenders.
  - a. The IAD applies to all detainers based on untried informations, complaints and indictments which have been lodged against a sentenced inmate by a party state, regardless of when the detainer was lodged. The Records Office of the institution or facility where the inmate is detained shall coordinate all IAD proceedings.
  - b. Each sentenced inmate against whom there is lodged a detainer from a party state is to be given a completed IAD Form I (Attachment 1) by the Legal Instruments Examiner (LIE) of the institution where the inmate is confined. This form shall provide information on all detainers lodged against the inmate by all party states. The inmate is required to date and sign the receipt on IAD Form I. The receipted form shall remain in the inmate record. If the inmate refuses to acknowledge receipt of the IAD Form I, a notation for the record, with a signature and a date, shall be made and filed by the LIE delivering the notice.

- c. A sentenced inmate who requires disposition of an untried detainer from a party state is to be given an IAD Form II (Attachment 2) for each party state which has placed detainers against the inmate by the LIE of the institution where the inmate is confined. Delivery of IAD Form II to the inmate must be recorded, a receipt obtained and filed. If the inmate refused to sign a receipt, a notation, with a signature and a date, shall be made for the record.
- d. When a sentenced inmate makes a request for production in any party state by completion of IAD Form II, the LIE shall record the date it is received. IAD Forms II, III (Attachment 3) and IV (Attachment 4) shall be forwarded promptly by certified mail, return receipt requested, to the prosecutor and the clerk of the court in each judicial jurisdiction of that party state in which charges are pending. A copy of IAD Forms II, III and IV shall be forwarded by regular mail to the person in the party state who forwarded the detainer. The certified mail receipt should be retained along with the completed IAD forms and filed in the requesting inmate's institutional record.
- e. Article V of the Agreement authorizes the Federal or District of Columbia Government to either transfer the inmate to temporary state custody or require delivery to the United States Marshals' custody for production in state court.
- f. In cases where the request for temporary custody IAD Form V (Attachment 5) is initiated by the prosecutor, IAD Forms III and IV shall be completed and forwarded by the LIE of the institution where the inmate is confined to the prosecutor and the clerk of the court in each judicial jurisdiction of that party state in which charges are pending. The inmate must be notified in writing by the LIE, with notations of delivery and receipt, of the prosecutor's request for temporary custody. The District of Columbia's Agreement Administrator must also be notified since he/she is the only one who can deny the prosecutor's request. Although only one prosecutor in a party state may be requesting temporary custody, all other prosecutors and appropriate courts in the party state who have lodged detainers against the inmate must be furnished IAD Forms III and IV accompanied by notices informing those prosecutors and the courts of the request for custody or availability that has been made. The IAD does not deprive any inmate of any right which he/she may have to contest the legality of his delivery to a party state when the demand for custody is made by a party state. If an inmate does contest such delivery, the District of Columbia's Agreement Administrator must be notified.
  - (1) Copies of IAD Form IV should be sent to the prosecutors only after the District of Columbia's Agreement Administrator either approves the request of the prosecutor or has taken no action within 30 days.
  - (2) If the District of Columbia's Agreement Administrator should disapprove the request, notice shall be sent immediately to all officials involved, and to the inmate.
- g. Where the inmate initiates the request and no reply is received from any of the prosecutors to whom the request was forwarded within 90 days, the Warden of the institution having custody of the inmate shall immediately notify the Agreement Administrator of the jurisdiction in which charges are pending. If the inmate is not brought to trial within 180 days, the detainer can be considered void and without effect, unless the court in which the charges are pending continues the case. The inmate must be notified to petition the court having jurisdiction of the detainer for actual removal of the detainer. If the inmate is returned without these charges having been disposed of, the detainer is considered void. A copy of the certified mail receipt and completed IAD forms should be sent to the IAD Coordinator.

- h. Before a detainer is found invalid, the D.C. Agreement Administrator must write a letter to the prosecutor(s) and the Interstate Agreement Administrator (address list, attachment 12) for the requesting state which shall indicate that the detainer has been held invalid and the reason(s). The detainer itself should not be returned to the jurisdiction which lodged it.
- i. The Agreement Administrator shall forward to the institution where the inmate is confined a copy of correspondence related to expiration of the 180-day limit during which the prosecutor must take custody if he intends to do so. Copies of that letter are also forwarded to the Fugitive Unit, Metropolitan Police Department (MPD). Copies of these letters are sufficient notices to the institutions that the detainer must be ignored and disregarded for all purposes of custody determinations and for program planning. If the Fugitive Unit, MPD, does not recall the detainer within 30 days, the Agreement Administrator must be notified.
- j. In the unusual situations where there is an appeal pending, or the inmate is unsentenced, a clearance from the court through the United States Attorney is required before the inmate may be transferred to the temporary custody of a party state. All such requests must be referred to the District of Columbia Agreement Administrator. Where the inmate initiating the request has been sentenced in one or more cases, but has additional local untried cases, the District of Columbia's Agreement Administrator must be notified promptly. The expiration of the 180 days limitation for transfer initiated by a defendant does not apply to all states in regards to a warrant. Some states under the Agreement do not consider a warrant the same as a detainer. Their position is that a defendant has a right to preliminary hearings on a felony warrant, after which he/she is indicated by a grand jury. The defendant then is brought to trial on the indictment. Because the defendant cannot be brought to trial on a felony warrant, the 180 days limitation under the Agreement on Detainer would not apply.
- k. The release of an inmate under IAD to the custody of authorized agents of the party state shall be made at the Central Detention Facility (CDF). Return of an inmate to the custody of the DCDC by a party state shall be made at the CDF.
- l. A copy of all final actions on the IAD made by the DCDC must be forwarded to the MPD Fugitive Unit, by the Agreement Administrator at the time action is taken.

- m. Form IX, Prosecutor's Report on Disposition of Charges, (Attachment 9) shall be completed and forwarded by the prosecutor after disposition of the detainer charges. If Form IX is not received within 30 days after the inmate is returned to the DCDC, the Agreement Administrator shall be notified.
- n. A Detainer Notice (Agreement on Detainers Form X, Attachment 10), signed by the Agreement Administrator shall be forwarded to the institution where the inmate is being held at the same time as approval of the out-of-state custody is forwarded. A copy of the detainer shall be placed in the inmate record. The original shall accompany the inmate during the transfer and shall be given to the out-of-state officer taking custody of the inmate.
- o. Each Records Office at every institution is required to keep a copy of Public Law 91-538, the IAD Act, which may be found as an Appendix to Title 18 of the United States Code or as Title 24, Section 701 of the District of Columbia Code, and a current list of administrators and party states of the IADA, as furnished by the Agreement Administrator and to maintain a reasonable amount of all IAD Forms.
  - (1) The heading of each IAD Form contains specific instructions for completion and distribution. Adherence to those instructions is required.
  - (2) The Records Office, CDF, shall notify the Agreement Administrator by memorandum of the release of an inmate to a party state custody and of the return of inmate to DCDC custody by a party state.
  - (3) These notices are necessary so that the Agreement Administrator can notify the Fugitive Unit, MPD, that prosecution under IAD has occurred and that the warrant-detainer should be removed. New detainers are required representing conviction and sentence imposed by the receiving state.
  - (4) In those cases where the Fugitive Unit, MPD, has not withdrawn the Fugitive Notice after IAD notification and the detainer is still on file at the time of release from custody, the inmate is to be turned over to the Fugitive Unit.
  - (5) Escape from custody by an inmate subsequent to the execution of the final disposition of a detainer voids that request for the period during which he is in escape status. Upon return to custody, the inmate has the right to file another request.

- (6) In the event of an escape from custody by the inmate after transfer from the custody of the DCDC, it shall be the responsibility of this Department's Agreement Administrator to notify the CDF Records Office and request that service of sentence be interrupted as in any other escape case. You are hereby further advised that by the provisions of said Agreement you have the right to request the appropriate prosecuting officer of the jurisdiction in which any such indictment, information or complaint is pending and the appropriate court that a final disposition be made thereof. You shall then be brought to trial within 180 days, unless extended pursuant to provisions of the Agreement. Should you desire such a request for final disposition of any untried indictment, information or complaint, you are to notify the Record Office Supervisor of the institution in which you are confined.

You are also advised that under provisions of said Agreement the prosecuting officer of a jurisdiction in which any such indictment, information or complaint is pending may institute proceedings to obtain a final disposition thereof. In such event, you may oppose the request that you be delivered to such prosecuting officer or court. You may request the Warden to disapprove any such request for your temporary custody but you cannot oppose delivery on the grounds that the Warden has not affirmatively consented to or ordered such delivery.
