1. PURPOSE AND SCOPE. The Department of Corrections (DOC) may award Good Time Credits (GTC) to eligible misdemeanants for good behavior and successful participation in rehabilitative programs, work details, and special projects.

2. POLICY

- a. It is DOC policy to award Good Time Credits to inmates consistent with DC Code § 24-221.01, et seq. and as amended in §§ 24-221.03 c(c)) (March 26, 2016).
- b. Good Time Credits shall be applied to the person's minimum term of imprisonment to determine the date of eligibility for release.
- c. No inmate shall receive more than a total of ten (10) Good Time Credits per calendar month for good behavior and positive participation in rehabilitative programs, details or special projects.
- d. Once Good Time Credits are awarded for successful program participation, work details or special projects, they are vested and cannot be forfeited.
- e. When found guilty of one or more Class I or Class II offenses as defined in PM 5300.1, Good Time Credits that were given at sentence computation for good behavior may be forfeited and credits for successful programming that have not yet been awarded, may be withheld.
- f. Good Time Credits forfeited or withheld because of disciplinary violations may be restored in accordance with this directive.

3. APPLICABILITY

This policy shall apply to every inmate of a District of Columbia correctional institution who is serving a sentence for a misdemeanor pursuant to section 3(b) of An Act to Establish a Board of Indeterminate Sentence and Parole for the District of Columbia (DC Official Code § 24-221.01, et seq. and as amended in §§ 24-221.03 c(c)) (March 26, 2016).

4. EXCEPTIONS. Good Time Credits shall not be applied to persons sentenced under:

- a. DC Code §22-4502 Crime of Violence or Dangerous Crime While Armed,

8. STANDARDS REFERENCED

- a. American Correctional Association (ACA) 4th Edition Performance-Based Standards for Local Adult Detention Facilities 4-ALDF-5A-09

9. DEFINITIONS. For the purpose of this directive the following definitions shall apply:

- a. Expiration of the Sentence. An inmate's sentence has expired, requiring the release from incarceration without further supervision because the inmate:
 - 1) Has served the maximum term of commitment; or
 - 2) Has served the maximum term of commitment less the GTC credits awarded pursuant to D.C. Official Code §24-221.01, et seq.).
- b. Rehabilitative program
 - 1) Rehabilitative programs means a program providing opportunities for self-improvement, including treatment, academic or vocational programs.
 - 2) In DOC program providing opportunities for self-improvement; include but may not be limited to participation in Reentry, Residential Substance Abuse Treatment, Job Readiness Unit, GED Unit, academic or vocational programs, substance use education, and institutional work detail assignments.
 - 3) The Director or designee will issue official notice if additional rehabilitative programs are identified or provided in DOC.

10. GENERAL RULES

- a. Good Time Credits shall apply to good behavior and to successful program participation regardless of whether the inmate is pre-trial, pre-sentence, or sentenced for a misdemeanor.
- b. One (1) credit is equal to one (1) full day of reduction in a sentence.
- c. An inmate shall not earn more than ten (10) Good Time Credits per full calendar month.
- b. Program Coordinators shall ensure Good Time Credits for program participation, work details and special projects are submitted in a timely manner such that all credited days can be effectuated in order to allow the inmate the earliest release date possible.

The Records Office Administrator or designee shall ensure priority sentence computation for sentenced misdemeanants when it appears that the application of credits would sufficiently reduce the inmate's minimum or maximum sentence making the inmate eligible for immediate release. The Records Office will apply good time credit to effectuate the inmate's release as time served.

- c. An inmate shall not receive credit for any ten (10) day period during which the inmate is not incarcerated, including a period where the inmate's sentence is stayed or the inmate has escaped.
- d. Once an inmate has been released, either to probation or by the expiration of his/her sentence, Good Time Credits awarded during the period of incarceration are of no further effect and shall not be used to shorten the period of probation, to shorten the period of incarceration which the inmate may be required to serve for violation of probation, or to shorten any subsequent sentence.

11. APPLYING GOOD TIME CREDIT

- a. Good Behavior
 - 1) An inmate sentenced for a misdemeanor and whose conduct complies with institutional rules shall be eligible to receive Good Time Credits of up to three (3) credits per calendar month for good behavior.

- 2) Although Good Time Credits for good behavior are calculated from the first day of incarceration, it shall not accrue before the 20th day of incarceration.
 - 3) The reduction shall be calculated from the first date of commitment at a rate of three (3) days for each full calendar month during the inmate's commitment, or, if the inmate is committed for less than a full calendar month at a rate of one day for each ten (10) day period within a calendar month in which an inmate is committed.
- b. Rehabilitative Programs, Work Details and Special Projects
- 1) An inmate who is sentenced for a misdemeanor and who demonstrates good behavior as well as successful participation in one or more rehabilitative programs, work detail or special project shall be eligible to receive up to three (3) credits per full calendar month for each program, detail or project; subject to the limit of days that can be earned in Section 2).
 - 2) No more than a total of seven (7) credits shall be applied for each calendar month of participation in a combination of programs, work details and/or special projects.
 - 2) The deduction shall be calculated from the first day the inmate enrolls and continues to demonstrate successful participation in rehabilitative programs, work detail or special project.
 - 3) Credits shall accrue in the following manner:
 - a) One (1) Day of Credit. If participation in the program, detail, or project lasts twenty (20) days or less;
 - b) Two (2) Days of Credit. If participation in the program, detail, or project lasts more than twenty (20) days, but less than twenty-six (26) days
 - c) Three (3) Days of Credit. If participation in the program, detail, or project lasts twenty-six (26) days or more

12. STAFF RESPONSIBILITIES FOR AWARDING GOOD TIME CREDITS

a. Good Behavior

- 1) Good Time Credits for good conduct shall be awarded by the Record's Office when the inmate is sentenced and the term of incarceration is being computed.
- 2) The Record's Office shall forward to the Chief Case Manager or designee a daily list of the inmate's sentenced from the previous day.

b. Rehabilitative Program Unit Participation

- 1) The Case Manager, RSAT Clinician or Program Coordinator shall monitor the inmate's projected release date and accumulated Good Time Credits in order to make timely submissions of the recommendation for Good Time Credits.
- 2) The Case Manager, RSAT Clinician, or Program Coordinator shall submit the recommendation using the Good Time Credit Memorandum (Misdemeanant) Form (Attachment 1) to the Program Coordinator.
- 3) A separate Good Time Credit Memorandum (Misdemeanant) shall be completed for each program where Good Time Credits are being recommended.
- 4) The Case Manager, RSAT Clinician or Program Coordinator; shall verify in the Good Time Credit Memorandum that:
 - a) The inmate is a misdemeanor that is eligible for GTC,
 - b) The inmate's offense(s) are eligible for award as stipulated by Sections 3 and 4 of this directive,
 - c) The inmate has met program requirements. And
 - d) The inmate has not been found guilty of any Class I or Class II disciplinary code violations in accordance with this directive.

e) Inmates cannot earn Good Time Credits for the period of time that they are in Disciplinary Segregation. In this instance Good Time Credits will be applied as follows:

- (1) The inmate may receive Good Time Credits for time in the rehabilitative program, detail or special project up until the date he or she was found guilty of the disciplinary offense.
- (2) The inmate may again be awarded Good Time Credits starting the day after completion of Disciplinary Segregation if he or she is returned to the program or resumes the detail assignment

5) Upon review of the recommendation for Good Time Credits, the Program Coordinator shall sign and submit the Good Time Credit Memorandum to the Chief Case Manager.

c. Institutional Work Details

- 1) The Case Manager shall monitor the inmate's projected release date and accumulated Good Time Credits in order to make timely notification to the Squad Supervisor for submission of the request for award of Good Time Credits for work details.
- 2) The Squad Supervisor or program official shall complete and submit the Good Time Credit Memorandum (Misdemeanant) Form (Attachment 1) to the Chief Case Manager or designee for approval within two (2) business days of the inmate's successful participation/completion of the eligible program.

d. Special Projects

- 1) The Program Coordinator who was in charge of the special project shall, within two (2) business days of completion of the special project, submit the recommendation for the award of Good Time Credits through the Case Manager.
- 2) The Case Manager will prepare and submit the Good Time Credit Memorandum to the Chief Case Manager.

e. Approval of the Recommendation for the Award of Good Time Credits

If the inmate meets all requirements prescribed in this directive, the Chief Case Manager shall sign approval for the award of the Good Time Credits and within two (2) business days, shall submit the Memorandum for Award to the Records Office.

f. Notification of the Award of Good Time Credit

The affected inmate shall be informed of all awards, forfeitures or restorations of Good Time Credits.

13. WITHDRAWALS

a. Involuntary Withdrawal

1) Administrative Reasons

- a) If an inmate is removed from a program/detail or project for administrative reasons, the squad supervisor or program official shall designate the inmate as an involuntary withdrawal.
- b) Administrative reasons may include, but not be limited to medical restrictions, temporary transfer from the facility or disciplinary detention.
- c) The inmate will be awarded Good Time Credits for the time he or she successfully participated in the program or worked in the detail or special project.

- b. Voluntary Withdrawal. If an inmate successfully participates in a program and requests to voluntarily withdraw from the program for justifiable reasons, the inmate will receive credit for the time enrolled prior to voluntarily withdrawal.

14. PROCEDURES FOR WITHHOLDING GOOD TIME CREDITS FOR PARTICIPATION IN REHABILITATIVE PROGRAMS

- a. Once awarded, Good Time Credits for successful participation in rehabilitative programs, work detail, and special projects may not be forfeited. However if an inmate voluntarily or involuntarily ends participation in a program after the Good Time Credits have been awarded, the Chief Case
