1. PURPOSE AND SCOPE. To promulgate the policy and procedures for handling and processing detainees in compliance with the Interstate Agreement on Detainers (IAD) for inmates remanded to the D.C. Department of Corrections (DOC) with detainees for untried indictments, information, or complaints filed by party states.

- a. On March 9, 1971, the District of Columbia became a party to the IAD on behalf of the United States and the District of Columbia. Therefore, it is the policy of the DCDC to comply with this Agreement and provide an effective means of disposing of detainees which are based on pending charges.

2. PROGRAM OBJECTIVES. The expected results of this program are:

- a. Inmates in the custody of the DOC will be able to dispose of “untried” charges through the IAD process.
- b. State jurisdictions will be able to acquire temporary custody of inmates housed in DOC facilities through the IAD process.

3. DIRECTIVE AFFECTED.

- a. Directives Rescinded
 - 1) PS. 4356.1C, “Interstate Agreement of Detainers (IAD),” (1/26/01)
- b. Directives Referenced. None

4. STANDARDS REFERENCED. None

5. AUTHORITY

- a. 18 U.S.C. – Appendix – Interstate Agreement on Detainers
- b. D.C. Code § 24-801, “Interstate Agreement on Detainers”
- c. Grant v. United States, 856 A.2d 1131 (D.C. 2004)

6. DELEGATION OF AUTHORITY. The DOC’s Inmate Record Office (IRO) is delegated authority to act as the District of Columbia’s Agreement Administrator in all matters concerning the IAD. All legal questions shall be referred to the DOC Office of General Counsel.

7. DEFINITIONS. For the purpose of this Program Statement, the following definitions apply:

- a. Charge – A formal accusation made by a governmental authority (i.e., prosecutor or police) asserting that an individual has committed a crime and refers to any untried indictments, information or complaints.
- b. Detainer - A formal request from a federal, state, or local criminal justice agency to the penal institution where the inmate is incarcerated, asking the institution to either hold the inmate for the agency after his release or to notify the agency when the inmate’s release is imminent.
- c. Interstate Agreement on Detainers (IAD) - An agreement entered into by “party states” for the disposition of untried charges, indictments, information or complaints which form the basis for the detainer. The agreement applies to all detainers based on pending charges which have been lodged against an inmate by a “party state,” regardless of when the detainer was lodged. IAD applies only to “untried” indictments, information, or complaints. The IAD does not apply to probation or parole violators.
- d. Party State - The United States of America, the District of Columbia, and any state or territory of the United States that has codified IAD into its statutes.

8. PROCEDURES. D.C. Department of Corrections personnel shall adhere to the following guidelines when processing Interstate Agreement on Detainers for sentenced offenders.

- a. The IAD applies to all detainers based on untried information, complaints and indictments that have been lodged against a sentenced inmate by a party state, regardless of when the detainer was lodged. The IRO shall coordinate all IAD proceedings.
- b. Each sentenced inmate against whom there is lodged a detainer from a party state is to be given a completed IAD Form I (Attachment 1) by a Legal Instruments Examiner (LIE) from the IRO. This form shall provide information on all detainers lodged against the inmate by all party states. The inmate is required to date and sign the receipt on IAD Form I. The receipted form shall remain in the inmate’s record. If the inmate refuses to acknowledge receipt of the IAD Form I, a notation for the record, with a signature and a date, shall be made and filed by the LIE delivering the notice. A sentenced inmate who requires disposition of an untried detainer from a party state is to be given an IAD Form II (Attachment 2) for each party state which has placed detainers against the inmate by a LIE from the IRO. Delivery of IAD Form II to the inmate must be recorded with a receipt obtained and filed. If the inmate refused to sign a receipt, a notation, with a signature and a date, shall be made for the record.

- c. When a sentenced inmate makes a request for production in any party state by completion of IAD Form II, the LIE shall record the date it is received. IAD Forms II, III (Attachment 3) and IV (Attachment 4) shall be forwarded promptly by certified mail, return receipt requested, to the prosecutor and the clerk of the court in each judicial jurisdiction of that party state in which charges are pending. A copy of IAD Forms II, III and IV shall be forwarded by regular mail to the person in the party state who forwarded the detainer. The certified mail receipt should be retained along with the completed IAD forms and filed in the requesting inmate's institutional record.
- d. Article V of the Agreement authorizes the Federal or District of Columbia Government to either transfer the inmate to temporary state custody or require delivery to the United States Marshals' custody for production in state court.
- e. In cases where the request for temporary custody IAD Form V (Attachment 5) is initiated by the prosecutor, IAD Forms III and IV shall be completed and forwarded by an LIE from the Inmate Records Office to the prosecutor and the clerk of the court in each judicial jurisdiction of that party state in which charges are pending. The inmate must be notified in writing by the LIE, with notations of delivery and receipt, of the prosecutor's request for temporary custody. The Agreement Administrator must also be notified since he/she is the only one who can deny the prosecutor's request. Although only one prosecutor in a party state may be requesting temporary custody, all other prosecutors and appropriate courts in the party state who have lodged detainers against the inmate must be furnished IAD Forms III and IV accompanied by notices informing those prosecutors and the courts of the request for custody or availability that has been made. The IAD does not deprive any inmate of any right which he/she may have to contest the legality of his delivery to a party state when the demand for custody is made by a party state. The inmate shall forward any contest of such delivery to the Agreement Administrator.

- 1) Copies of IAD Form IV should be sent to the prosecutors only after the District of Columbia's Agreement Administrator either approves the request of the prosecutor or has taken no action within 30 days.
 - 2) If the District of Columbia's Agreement Administrator disapproves the request, notice shall be sent immediately to all officials involved, and to the inmate.
- f. Where the inmate initiates the request and no reply is received from any of the prosecutors to whom the request was forwarded within 90 days, the Warden shall immediately notify the Agreement Administrator of the jurisdiction in which charges are pending. If the inmate is not brought to trial within 180 days, the detainer can be considered void and without effect, unless the court in which the charges are pending continues the case. The inmate must be notified to petition the court having jurisdiction of the detainer for actual removal of the detainer. If the inmate is returned without these charges having been disposed of, the detainer is considered void. A copy of the certified mail receipt and completed IAD forms should be sent to the IAD Coordinator.
 - g. Before a detainer is found invalid, the D.C. Agreement Administrator must write a letter to the prosecutor(s) and the Interstate Agreement Administrator (address list, attachment 10) for the requesting state which shall indicate that the detainer has been held invalid and the reason(s). The detainer itself should not be returned to the jurisdiction which lodged it.
 - h. The Agreement Administrator shall file a copy of correspondence related to expiration of the 180-day limit during which the prosecutor must take custody if he intends to do so. Copies of that letter are also forwarded to the Metropolitan Police Department Fugitive Unit (Fugitive Unit). Copies of these letters are sufficient notices to the institutions that the detainer must be ignored and disregarded for all purposes of custody determinations and for program planning. If the Fugitive Unit does not recall the detainer within 30 days, the Agreement Administrator must be notified.
 - i. In the unusual situations where there is an appeal pending, or the inmate is unsentenced, a clearance from the court through the United States Attorney is required before the inmate may be transferred to the temporary custody of a party state. All such requests must be referred to the District of Columbia Agreement Administrator. Where the inmate initiating the request has been sentenced in one or more cases, but has additional local untried cases, the District of Columbia's Agreement Administrator must be notified promptly. The expiration of the 180 days limitation for transfer initiated by a defendant does not apply to all states in regards to a warrant. Some states under the Agreement do not consider a warrant the same as a detainer. Their position is that a defendant has a right to preliminary hearings on a felony warrant, after which he/she is indicated by a grand jury. The defendant then is brought to trial on the indictment. Because the defendant cannot be brought to trial on a felony warrant, the 180 days limitation under the Agreement on Detainer would not apply.

- j. The release of an inmate under IAD to the custody of authorized agents of the party state shall be made at the Central Detention Facility (CDF). Return of an inmate to the custody of the DOC by a party state shall be made at the CDF.
- k. A copy of all final actions on the IAD made by the DOC must be forwarded to the Fugitive Unit, by the Agreement Administrator at the time action is taken.
- l. Form IX, Prosecutor's Report of Disposition of Charges, (Attachment 9) shall be completed and forwarded by the prosecutor after disposition of the detainer charges. If Form IX is not received within 30 days after the inmate is returned to the DCDC, the Agreement Administrator shall be notified. A Detainer Notice, signed by the Agreement Administrator shall be forwarded to the institution where the inmate is being held at the same time as approval of the out-of-state custody is forwarded. A copy of the detainer shall be placed in the inmate record. The original shall accompany the inmate during the transfer and shall be given to the out-of-state officer taking custody of the inmate.
- m. Inmate Records Office is required to keep a copy of Public Law 91-538, the IAD, which may be found as an Appendix to Title 18 of the United States Code or as Title 24, Section 801 of the District of Columbia Code, and a current list of administrators and party states of the IAD, as furnished by the Agreement Administrator and to maintain a reasonable amount of all IAD Forms.
 - 1) The heading of each IAD Form contains specific instructions for completion and distribution. Adherence to those instructions is required.

- 2) The prosecutor for the receiving state shall use Form VI, "Evidence of Agent's Authority to Act for Receiving State" to designate agents for the detainer. The prosecutor shall forward this form the Agreement Administrator.
- 3) When an inmate has made a request for disposition of a detainer, the receiving prosecutor shall submit Form 7, Acceptance of Temporary Custody Offered with an Inmate's Request for Disposition of a Detainer (Attachment 7), to the Agreement Administrator of the state which has the inmate incarcerated.
- 4) When a prosecutor has made a request for disposition of a detainer, the receiving prosecutor shall submit Form VIII, Prosecutor's Acceptance of Temporary Custody Offered in Connection with a Prosecutor's Request for Disposition Retainer, (Attachment 8), to the receiving Warden, the inmate, any other jurisdictions in the offer of temporary custody and the Agreement Administrator of the state which has the inmate incarcerated.
- 5) The Agreement Administrator shall notify the Fugitive Unit that prosecution under IAD has occurred and that the warrant-detainer should be removed. New detainers are required representing conviction and sentence imposed by the receiving state.
- 6) In those cases where the Fugitive Unit has not withdrawn the Fugitive Notice after IAD notification and the detainer is still on file at the time of release from custody, the inmate is to be turned over to the Fugitive Unit.
- 7) Escape from custody by an inmate subsequent to the execution of the final disposition of a detainer voids that request for the period during which he is in escape status. Upon return to custody, the inmate has the right to file another request.
- 8) In the event of an escape from custody by the inmate after transfer from the custody of the DOC, it shall be the responsibility of this Department's Agreement Administrator to ensure that service of sentence be interrupted as in any other escape case.
- 9) In the event any District of Columbia inmate escapes from custody or

Pursuant to the Interstate Agreement on Detainers Act, you are hereby informed that the following are the untried indictments, informations, or complaints against you concerning which the undersigned has knowledge, and the source and contents of each.

You are hereby further advised that by the provisions of said Agreement you have the right to request the appropriate prosecuting officer of the jurisdiction in which any such indictment, information or complaint is pending and the appropriate court that a final disposition be made thereof. You shall then be brought to trial within 180 days, unless extended pursuant to provisions of the Agreement. After you have caused to be delivered to said prosecuting officer and said court written notice of the place of your imprisonment and your said request, together with a certificate of the custodial authority as more fully set forth in said Agreement. However, the court having jurisdiction of the matter may grant any necessary or reasonable continuance.

Your request for final disposition will operate as a request for final disposition of all untried indictments, informations or complaints on the basis of which detainers have been lodged against you from the state to whose prosecuting official your request for final disposition is specifically directed. Your request will also be deemed to be a waiver of extradition to the state of trial to serve any sentence there imposed upon you, after completion of your term of imprisonment in this state. Your request will also constitute a consent by you to the production of your body in any court where your presence may be required in order to effectuate the purposes of Agreement on Detainer and a further consent voluntarily to be returned to the institution in which you are now confined.

Should you desire such a request for final disposition of any untried indictment, information or complaint, you are to notify the Record Office Supervisor of the institution in which you are confined.

You are also advised that under provisions of said Agreement the prosecuting officer of a jurisdiction in which any such indictment, information or complaint is pending may institute proceedings to obtain a final disposition thereof. In such event, you may oppose the request that you be delivered to such prosecuting officer or court. You may request the Warden to disapprove any such request for your temporary custody but you cannot oppose delivery on the grounds that the Warden has not affirmatively consented to or ordered such delivery.
